Setting Up Greeting and Voicemail in RingCentral

Step 1: Log in to https://service.ringcentral.com using the credentials you set up during the initial account set up

Overview	Messages	Call Log	Contacts	Settings	More
(
Gree	eting & Call	Call Handlin	g Rules	Voicer	nail	Caller ID	After Hours Settin

Step 2: On the 'Overview' tab select 'Voicemail'

Step 3: Under 'Messages' in the main section for your phone number click 'Edit' and select 'Custom' from the dropdown

✓ User Details	Voicemail Gree	eting ×
✓ Phones & Numb	Set Greeting
	Default	~
✓ Screening, Gree	Default Custom
✓ Call Handling &	English (U.S.)	~
∧ Messages	"Your call has been forwarded to the voicema available to take your call. At the tone, please you've finished recording, you may hang up o options."	il for Andrew Relyea. No one is e record your message. When r press the # key for more
User Hours Af		- 00:00 / 00:00 🜒
Take Messages
Enable		Cancel Done
Voicemail Greeting		Message Recipient
Default		This Extension (Ext. 6211)
\bigcirc	00:00 / 00:00 🌒 🗕	O Specific Extension

Step 4: This is up to you, but you can choose to have RingCentral call a number (Call me at...) and offer a recording option to save, or you can select 'Computer Microphone' to use a headset or built-in microphone to record/save, or you can upload an .mp3

et Greetin	ıg
Custom		\sim
Phone	Computer Microphone Importing
RingCentra	I will call you to record your custom greeting over the	e phone.
RingCentra C all me at Enter a ne	I will call you to record your custom greeting over the	e phone.
RingCentra Call me at Enter a ne	I will call you to record your custom greeting over the	e phone.
RingCentral Call me at Enter a ne Call Now	I will call you to record your custom greeting over the	e phone.

For further information/assistance, call the PSC HelpDesk at 518-327-6465 or email HelpDesk@paulsmiths.edu.